WINNEPEG BREAKS UP BOLSHEVIK

(By Associated Press)
WINNEPEG, June 17.—Ten strike leaders were arrested last night in their homes and transported by automobile, presumably, to Stormy Mountain by government officials. It is reported that arrests were made simultaneously at Calgary and other western points. The Royal Northwest Mounted Police raided the labor temple from which the general strike was conducted. They smashed the windows and doors and seized literature reported to be of a Bolshevist nature.

WILSON LEAVES PARIS JUNE 25

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 17.—President Wilson hopes to leave Paris by June 25 if the Germans sign. He will address congress immediately after his arrival and after disposing of pressing official business, will begin a speaking tour, explaining the treaty and league of nations covenant. The president made known his desire that audiences during his speaking tour be composed largely of opponents of the league of nations rather than supporters. He also informed the White House officials that he might discuss the league covenant in an address during his visit to Belgium this week. When Wilson arrives in Washington he will present the revised draft of the treaty to the senate and will discuss the treaty and league covenant in an address to a joint session of the senate and house.

PHONE WORKERS OUT ON COAST

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Officials of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers claimed today that 8000 telephone company workers are on strike today throughout California, with the exception of the Sacramento district. The Sacramento district union is awaiting the outcome of a conference Thursday night with the telephone officials before taking strike action. All Fresno workers quit. Strike affected all towns in the San Joaquin valley.

WHY OUR ARMY CROSSED BORDER

(By Associated Press)
MEXICO CITY, (Monday), June 17.—The Mexican government has nothing to announce regarding the crossing of American troops from El Paso to Juarez. General Juan Barragan, Carranza's chief of staff said tonight, Barragan gave out a copy of official dispatches giving details of fighting which are almost identical with those of the Associated Press. Carranza, with his cabinet ministers, and Barragan conferred most of the day. One official dispatch from General Aguilar, confidential ambassador of Carranza at Washington, stated that he made representations to the state department regarding the incident. Official dispatches indicate that Mexican officials on the border arrested the American claim that the attack on Villa's forces by Americans was for the purpose of protecting American lives across the frontier.

Changes Made in the Treaty Tighten Steel Chains on the Enemy Without Yielding

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, (Monday), June 16.—Among the modifications acceded to Germany by the peace conference are a frontier rectification for West Prussia with a plebiscite for Upper Silesia, with a guarantee that Germany will receive fair treatment in securing mineral products and modifications of clauses relating to finance and economic phases of the treaty. Permission is given Germany to retain a 600,000 army temporarily. The treaty promised to furnish Germany within a month a full list of persons who should be tried for responsibility for the war, and violation of the laws of war. The reply says war was precipitated "through a decision deliberately taken by the statesmen of Berlin, Vienna and Budapest," and asserts the powers cannot "entrust the trial of those responsible to those who have been their accomplices."

The allied and associated powers refused to enter into a discussion of the principles underlying the reparations clauses but made a certain reservation especially as the German proposals are said to "present a view so distorted and inexact as to raise

TONOPAH GROWN RIPE PEACHES

Real ripe, Tonopah grown peaches may be had if you have the persuasive smile and a winning way to induce Miss Emma Steen, cashier of the Butler theater, to part with the velvety treasures that hang temptingly from a home grown peach tree in her front yard. The tree was raised from a sapling in Tonopah and brought to a state of perfection that is rarely seen in climates better adapted to the production of fruits. The tree may be seen by anyone who will walk to the head of Florence avenue at the Steen residence where over 150 real ripe peaches may be seen in luscious freshness just waiting to be picked.

RESCUE SUFFERS FOR WANT OF MINERS

Rescue is shipping at the rate of 65 tons a week and could easily double this were it not for the difficulty of procuring miners. Manager Moore is now raising in eight feet of ore from the 1050 level and is shipping from development ore that breaks down better than $18 with one shift of men. The last shipment of 65 tons went out Sunday and another shipment is ready as soon as the West End mill can take care of it. This tonnage could be greatly increased if labor conditions were better.

BACK BROKEN IN DESERT QUEEN

Paul Saupit, an Austrian employed on the Desert Queen section of the Belmont mine, was seriously injured yesterday morning and removed to the Mine Operators' hospital where it was found that his spine was dislocated and head crushed. The case was one that called for attention of a specialist and late in the afternoon it was decided to send the injured man to the Hahnemann hospital in San Francisco. Saupit was taken out on last night's train accompanied by Dr. Church. Some feeling was created among friends of Saupit when it was learned that two men from San Francisco who had engaged the state room refused to yield to the request of Superintendent Robin to give the room to the sick man. Just before the train started the men changed their minds and surrendered the compartment taking lower berths. Saupit was just regaining his strength after an attack of double pneumonia which confined him to the Mine Operators' hospital for some time last March and only recently was able to undertake hard work.

WILSON MAY COME WEST

(By Associated Press)
SACRAMENTO, June 17.—Secretary Tumulty wrote the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce that President Wilson probably will come west and may visit Sacramento.

a doubt if the clauses were calmly are carefully examined." It was pointed out that the reparations commission is not an "engine of oppression" nor a device for interfering with German sovereignty. Its business is to fix what is to be paid, satisfy itself what Germany can pay.

The reply declared that commercial facilities are not withheld from Germany, but the allies will afford Germany facilities for food supplies, raw materials and overseas transportation under conditions "which cannot be laid down in advance. Meanwhile, the treaty must be signed," the reply declares.

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, (Havas News Agency), June 17.—Echo de Paris says a majority of the delegates believe the Germans will not sign the treaty. One based the belief that they would sign on the facts that the Germans knew the council of four yesterday gave orders for the advance June 24th of 600,000 allied troops supported by powerful heavy artillery, if the treaty is not signed.

(By Associated Press)
WEIMAR, June 17.—The new Allied terms have depressed the German leaders.
